

The Prayer Course

8 sessions on Tuesdays,
7pm-8.30pm starting 5th October

Hosted by Bethan and Peter Foden in their home.

This group will be following
'The Prayer Course'

by Pete Greig,

based on his best selling book: How to Pray, a simple guide for normal people.

Each week we will watch a short video leading into our own discussions and prayers.
There will be refreshments and time to chat, and this group is suitable for those at the start of their faith journey and those who have been growing in faith for some time. If you are not sure it's for you, give Peter or Bethan a ring to find out more.

Usk Ministry Area Small Groups

We are delighted to offer you something special. In September we will be launching a variety of small groups which will run for a fixed duration, exploring various aspects of our faith.

This is a wonderful opportunity to deepen our relationship with God amongst friends and fellow travellers. We can ask questions and explore things that interest us, enriching our faith and expanding our understanding. Small groups are a brilliant way to seek a better relationship with God, as well as people, so have a look at what is on offer and feel free to get in touch with the leaders.

Book Club

The Book Club will be meeting on the first Tuesday of every month to discover and explore books that are reputedly making a real difference to peoples' lives and faith journeys. We'll be reading selected books, then meeting to discuss them and to share our thoughts and relevant experiences. We will also have lots of tea/coffee and cake!

As we'll be meeting in member's houses our numbers are limited, so please contact Caroline Coggan ASAP if you would like to be part of the Book Club on 01291 671081.

Hot Topics

Wednesday September 15th at 7pm

Co-ordinated by Carole Kinsey , this will be a series of 6 interactive discussion sessions on contemporary problems. What is the Christian response to topics such as homelessness, refugees, the need for food banks, should religion be a part of politics?

What do you think the Christian response should be?

What can we do about such problems in our own lives?

These sessions will be one hour long on Zoom. Participants will be sent the Zoom link shortly before.

Topics are flexible but we will begin with homelessness.

Do come along with your ideas and be willing to share in lively discussions with plenty of room for alternative points of view. All welcome from whichever denomination or faith, or none.

DIPPING INTO FOURTEEN CENTURIES OF CHRISTIAN POETRY WRITTEN IN ENGLISH

Organised by Rev'd Pam Love. Weekly or fortnightly sessions of no more than an hour, reading poems and seeking to explore and illuminate our own faith by discussing and sharing ideas about the thoughts of Christian poets through the ages. Pam will choose and provide the material. Venue: Pam's home, other people's homes, and as a last resort a church or vestry. All to be decided! This will be an afternoon group starting in September. The exact day and times will be coordinated to suit participants.
